

Hi,

Tonight I went out for dinner with my girlfriend and her family. Her parents are visiting from Italy.

We took a taxi from the Holiday Inn-Central hotel to the restaurant, Sette Osteria on Connecticut Avenue. The doorman at the hotel hailed the driver who picked us up in his minivan taxi.

My girlfriend's elderly mother accidentally left her handbag inside the vehicle, and didn't realize it until we were already inside the restaurant, and the minivan had already driven away.

My girlfriend's mother was in a panic. Her bag contained her passport, cash, and other essentials that could not be easily replaced. Their visit and the entire week looked to be ruined.

Moments later the taxi reappeared at the corner where we had been dropped off. The driver, Gene Tufer (Face ID #74489, PVIN #A354), returned the bag and all of its contents, and literally saved the day.... and the week.

Gene also gave us a ride back to the hotel after dinner. He couldn't be a nicer, more kind, honorable, honest and trustworthy man. He's also a very safe driver.

Mr. Tufer should be commended for his honorable action, and supported in his work as a professional taxicab driver in Washington, D.C..

Please print this letter and add it to Mr. Tufer's file at the District of Columbia Taxicab Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

-Don Pessin

Hello,

I want to commend a taxi driver at Black Pearl Cab company. My husband left his wallet in the back seat of a cab last night (April 28), and this morning the cab driver returned it to us. He came to our apartment and hand-delivered the wallet with everything intact.

The driver's information he left with me is:

Asrat, at DomeLight
Drives with Black Pearl Cab
#B729

Asrat did a really wonderful thing for us, and if the Taxi Commission gives awards or other acknowledgements for great drivers, please do so for him. Feel free to reach out to me with any questions.

Sincerely,
Megan & Lonn Waters

Ms. Mixon, thanks again for all of your help. As I mentioned when we spoke, the cab driver returned my wallet to me last night. His name is Aji Bula (phone number is 202-258-2040) and he was driving Silver Cab Association cab #595 yesterday (a silver minivan). I thanked him and gave him a large tip in appreciation for his help.

Yesterday, Ms. Tillman helped me contact the driver of the cab where I had left my very expensive camera. She was so, so kind and so, so helpful - thank you, Ms. Tillman! She sat on the phone with me while she tracked down the driver, called his house, called his cellphone, and then made sure he had enough information about what I looked like to meet me on the street. She's really a credit to your agency and I can't praise her enough.

To Whom It May Concern:

Earlier this month, I left my clutch in a cab -- and I thought for certain that it would be gone forever.

I write this note to applaud my driver, Seyfe Woldamanuel (ID # 76013), for not only returning my bag to the Taxicab Commission, but also for delivering the bag that very same day to my office in Georgetown.

My bag had my credit card and drivers license, among many other important items -- and his swift action in returning the purse should be commended.

With my sincerest gratitude, I thank the driver and the DC Taxicab Commission for excellent service -- I'll remember this always.

Best,
Kristen
