Dear Neville:

Our family would like to share with you that our cab driver went out of his way to return my father-in-law's camera that he accidentally left in car. My father in law is a German citizen and he was very disturbed to learn that all his beautiful photos of DC may have been lost. He was profoundly grateful that the driver, who could have easily made a different decision, took the time to bring him his camera.

If you have an opportunity, please extend our thanks.
